1915

INSIDE, you'll find a private, dining venue with booths, banquet tables, a bar, private kitchen, private bathroom, and cigar terrace. Rustic reclaimed oak flooring and timber walls hearken to a different era while elements like a thick black marble bar suspended on an ebonized base add mystery and a modern feel. The effect: an intimate, hidden zone of quiet hospitality creating a memorable space for your event.

The culinary vision for Auric Room, and the room itself, is modeled after 1915 Montana meets modern day sophistication and elegance. The menu focuses on elevated classic comfort dishes using the finest ingredients, including local proteins and produce, and features a partnership with Little Bell Cattle, a family-owned, Montana-based company founded by combat veterans and using regenerative ranching practices. Furthermore, Auric Room is proud to be the first certified Kobe Beef Purveyor in Montana, formally awarded the honor by the country of Japan.

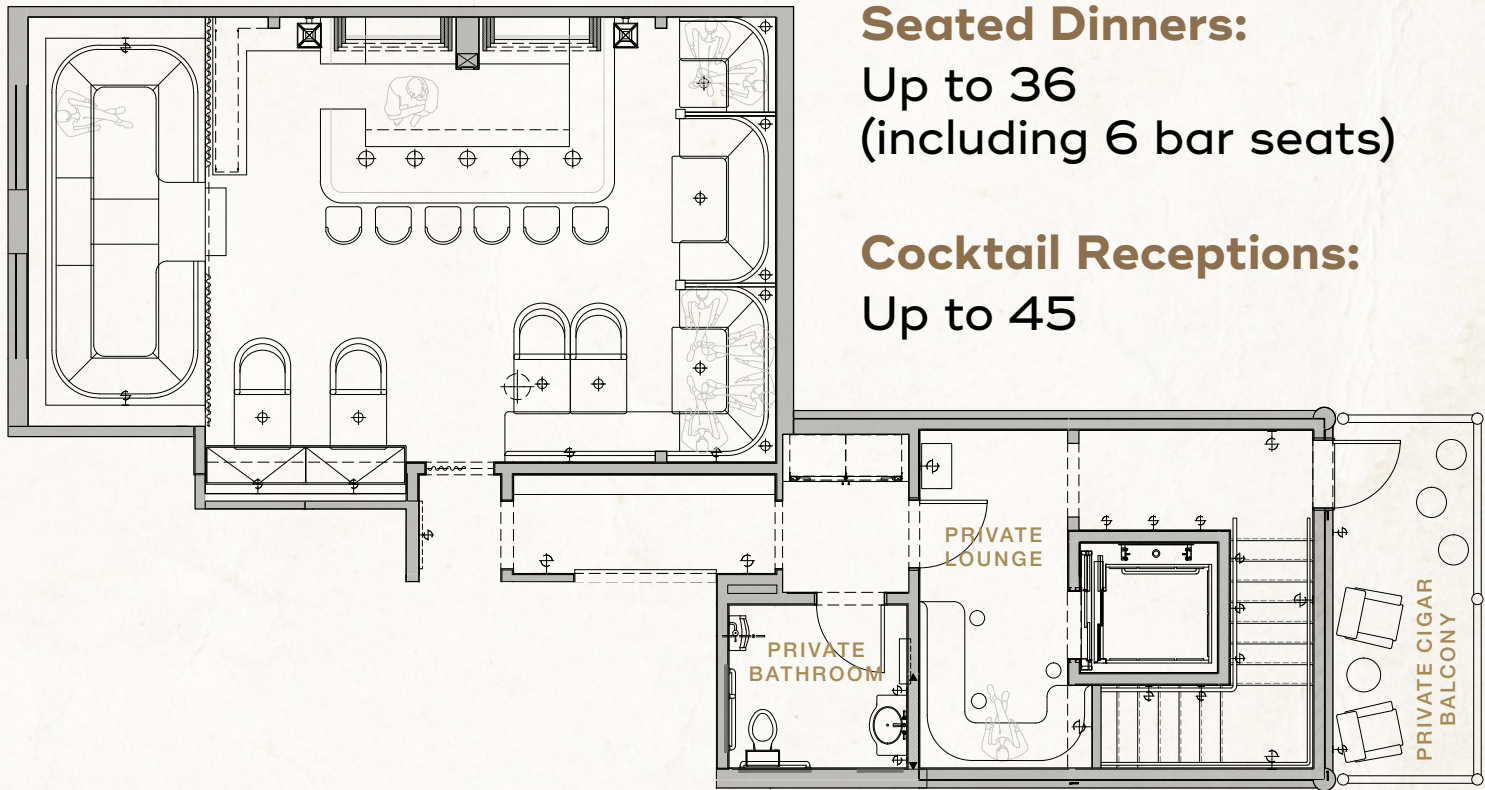

UNIFORMS are designed by Janie Bryant, an Emmy Award winning Costume Designer known for her work on the Yellowstone and Mad Men television series.
