Perched above Lone Mountain Ranch with sweeping views of Lone Peak, Grizzly Lodge is a seven-bedroom private Montana retreat sleeping up to 22 guests, made for families and friends to gather under one roof.

Completely reimagined, the lodge pairs the warmth and character of a classic Montana home with thoughtful design and craftsmanship. Rich woods, natural stone, layered textiles, and timeworn materials create interiors that feel collected over generations.

At its heart, a soaring great room opens to a kitchen and large dining table, with multiple living spaces throughout the lodge. Six king bedrooms — four with additional Twin XL daybeds — and a bunk room featuring two queen beds, two Twin XL bunks, and its own TV accommodate groups of all ages. A washer and dryer add convenience for extended stays.

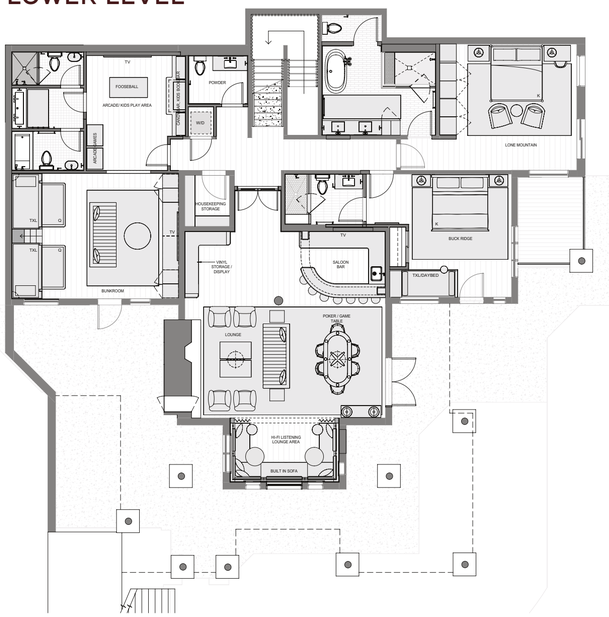

Downstairs, a private Western saloon invites poker nights, cocktails, and long evenings by the fire, with a large-screen TV and generous lounge seating. Nearby, younger guests have their own lounge and play space with arcade games and foosball.

Outdoor decks make the most of the elevated setting, inviting slow mornings overlooking Lone Peak, sunset drinks and conversation beneath the stars. Inside and out, Grizzly Lodge offers room to spread out, settle in, and enjoy the simple pleasure of being together.
